

LAUREN SCHIEFFER, CSP THE COLONEL'S DAUGHTER

PERSPECTIVES ON

RESPECT, LEADERSHIP, COMMUNICATION, AND ACCOUNTABILITY

As the daughter of a career Air Force officer, Lauren Schieffer grew up being uprooted and relocated every couple of years. This imbued her with a profound independence and ability to adapt to changing circumstances. She never lets what life has thrown at her bring her down.

The Colonel taught her how to treat others with respect, whether or not you like what they think, say or do. He taught her how to manage conflict from higher ground. He taught her how to solve problems and maintain a positive attitude even in the most trying and stressful of situations. Most importantly, The Colonel taught her how to approach all of her life's circumstances from a Higher View. The lessons she learned from The Colonel have helped her overcome adversity with humility and a sense of humor.

Able to relate to and energize everyone from the custodial staff to C-Level executives, Lauren Schieffer is a master storytelling, delivering inspirational and relevant content that empowers people to absorb and act upon what they've heard, and she does so in an entertaining manner with a dry sense of humor that keeps them chuckling while they're learning.

Her enthusiasm is contagious and her passion unmistakable.

“I am much more aware of how generational differences can affect communication. I am making it a point to adjust my message to fit the situation/person rather than using a “one-size-fits-all approach.” This has been effective since I work with such a diverse group of people.”
